Born in Chicago, the deceased came here 44 years ago.

Survivors are her husband, Thomas W. Teddy, a retired automobile dealer; two sons, Jack Teddy of Torrance and George Teddy of Lomita; and one sister.

Courthouse to be Dedicated Mon.

Supervisor Burton W. Chace announced that Monday, March 9, at 10:30 a.m., has been set as the tentative date for the dedication of the new $300,000 South Bay Municipal District Courthouse in Torrance.

Chace stated that plans have been made for an impressive civic ceremony to inaugurate the new facility which will be attended by mayors and councilmen of the eight incorporated cities within the South Bay district and several county officials.

Supervisor Chace will be joined on the program by his colleague on the Board, Kenneth Hahn, within whose district a small portion of the South Bay Judicial area lies.

Also present will be Sheriff Peter J. Pitches, District Attorney William B. McKesson, and County Marshal Joe Bookman.

Plans are being developed in cooperation with the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, which is arranging for the participation of several local persons and groups, including the Torrance Area Youth Band, which will furnish music for the occasion.

Boris W. Woolley, President of the South Bay Bar Association, will act as master of ceremonies according to Chace.

Water District Deadline Reset

Target date for the completion of circulation of petitions to form the Central and West Basin Water Replenishment District has been changed from March 1 to March 17.

Announcement of the change was made by R. J. Furlong and Allan Harris, presidents of the Central Basin Water Association.

Roger "Pat" Hogue is chairman of the petition circulation effort in Torrance. He estimates that Torrance is 25% of the way toward obtaining its quota of 6750 signatures.

WRESTLING EXHIBIT

Bertrand Shurtlef presented his famous "Wrestling Revelations" show to the junior high school boys of Stephen M. White Junior High School in a double assembly program on Feb. 24.

The principal dedication message will be given by Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

PUPPETS AND PALS—Examining puppets in a puppetry course being given by the Recreation Department, are Jamie Woodburn and Suzv Horlander, who are enrolled in the six-week course. Mrs. Erika Muhl, instructor, will teach them how to make the puppets, and later how to manipulate them.
